NavigSA

Navigate. Apply. Achieve.

A multilingual platform that guides international students into South African universities

PFP362S | Business Pitch | Witcha Francisco · Tanatswa Mabhodha · Nolwazi Zulu · Marc Kabala

The Problem

Who

International students aged 18-30 from countries like Zimbabwe, DRC, Angola, Mozambique and Ethiopia, often from low to middle-income households.

What

A multi-step entry system (SAQA, applications, visa, housing) in English, with confusing documents and no local guidance.

Why it matters

Money lost to fraudulent agents and rejected applications, missed deadlines, lost academic years and stress.

4.0 / 5

average pain level

6 of 8

would pay for help

R400 - R2,200

what local agents charge

Our Value Proposition

Affordable, multilingual, step-by-step application support so students enrol without losing money to errors, fraud or missed deadlines.

Language barrier	→	Guides in French, Portuguese & English
Process confusion	→	Numbered step-by-step roadmaps
Document errors	→	Expert review before submission
Agent exploitation	→	Transparent flat-rate pricing
Missed deadlines	→	Tracking & proactive reminders

Reaching and Serving Students

Customer Segments

- International students (primary)
- Parents and families abroad
- Partner universities
- Accommodation providers

Channels

- Website: central hub
- WhatsApp: instant support
- Instagram & Facebook groups
- University partnerships
- Student communities

Customer Relationships

- 24/7 AI chatbot
- Human support for complex cases
- FAQs & knowledge base
- Real-time deadline alerts

Our Business Model

Revenue Streams

- Premium student subscriptions
- University licensing & co-branded portals
- Featured accommodation listings
- Referral commissions

Key Activities & Resources

- Platform & AI chatbot development
- Keeping university/visa info accurate
- Student support & research
- Web platform, database, dev team

Key Partners

Universities, accommodation providers, student organisations, tech providers

Cost Structure

Development & hosting, AI services, marketing, support, security, content & research

In Summary

NavigSA turns a confusing, costly and risky process into a clear, affordable, multilingual journey, helping international students successfully enrol in South Africa, while building a scalable business across universities, students and partners.

Navigate. Apply. Achieve.